Jan Kaiponen

Solutions Architect, Solutions Development Consultant Helsinki

Summary

Jan Kaiponen tends to be thorough when working and thrives when there is a difficult problem to figure out. It comes naturally for Jan to appreciate a list of facts more than a story. Jan naturally invents things, and loves to articulate a clear plan of action before making a big decision

Jan can quickly understand business processes and is proactive in finding solutions to meet the requirements.

Jan possesses a flexible attitude as regards assuming different roles when moving from project to project. His professional experience covers requirements analysis as well as solution design and implementation during several project life cycles, and over a range of different industries.

Jan is an excellent communicator. Good at listening, too.
